THE SECRETARY TO THE STATE GOVERNMENT CIRCULAR NO. 3, 2013
UPGRADE OF THE SURVEY DEPARTMENT TO THE STATUS OF EXTRA-MINISTERIAL DEPARTMENT

As part of measures to boost physical planning and strengthen the implementation of the various land reforms, to achieve a seamless land administration in line with the structure at the Federal level and other States of the Federation, His Excellency, the Governor-in-council, has approved the upgrading/restructuring of the survey Department hitherto under the Ministry of Land and Housing, to the status of an extra-ministerial department, with the Surveyor-General as Chief Executive.

In the circumstance, the former Department of Survey will now be known and addressed in public communication and other expressions as the Office of the Surveyor-General of Cross River State.

All MDAs and the general public are requested to note the change and be guided accordingly, please.

MIKE U. ANIAH

SECRETARY TO THE STATE GOVERNMENT
